

British Association of Snowsport Instructors

TIED

Paul Garner
Becci Malthouse
Giles Lewis

BASI
BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF
SNOWSPORT INSTRUCTORS

The TIED model

- Where has it come from?
- What is TIED?
- How do BASI use the TIED model?

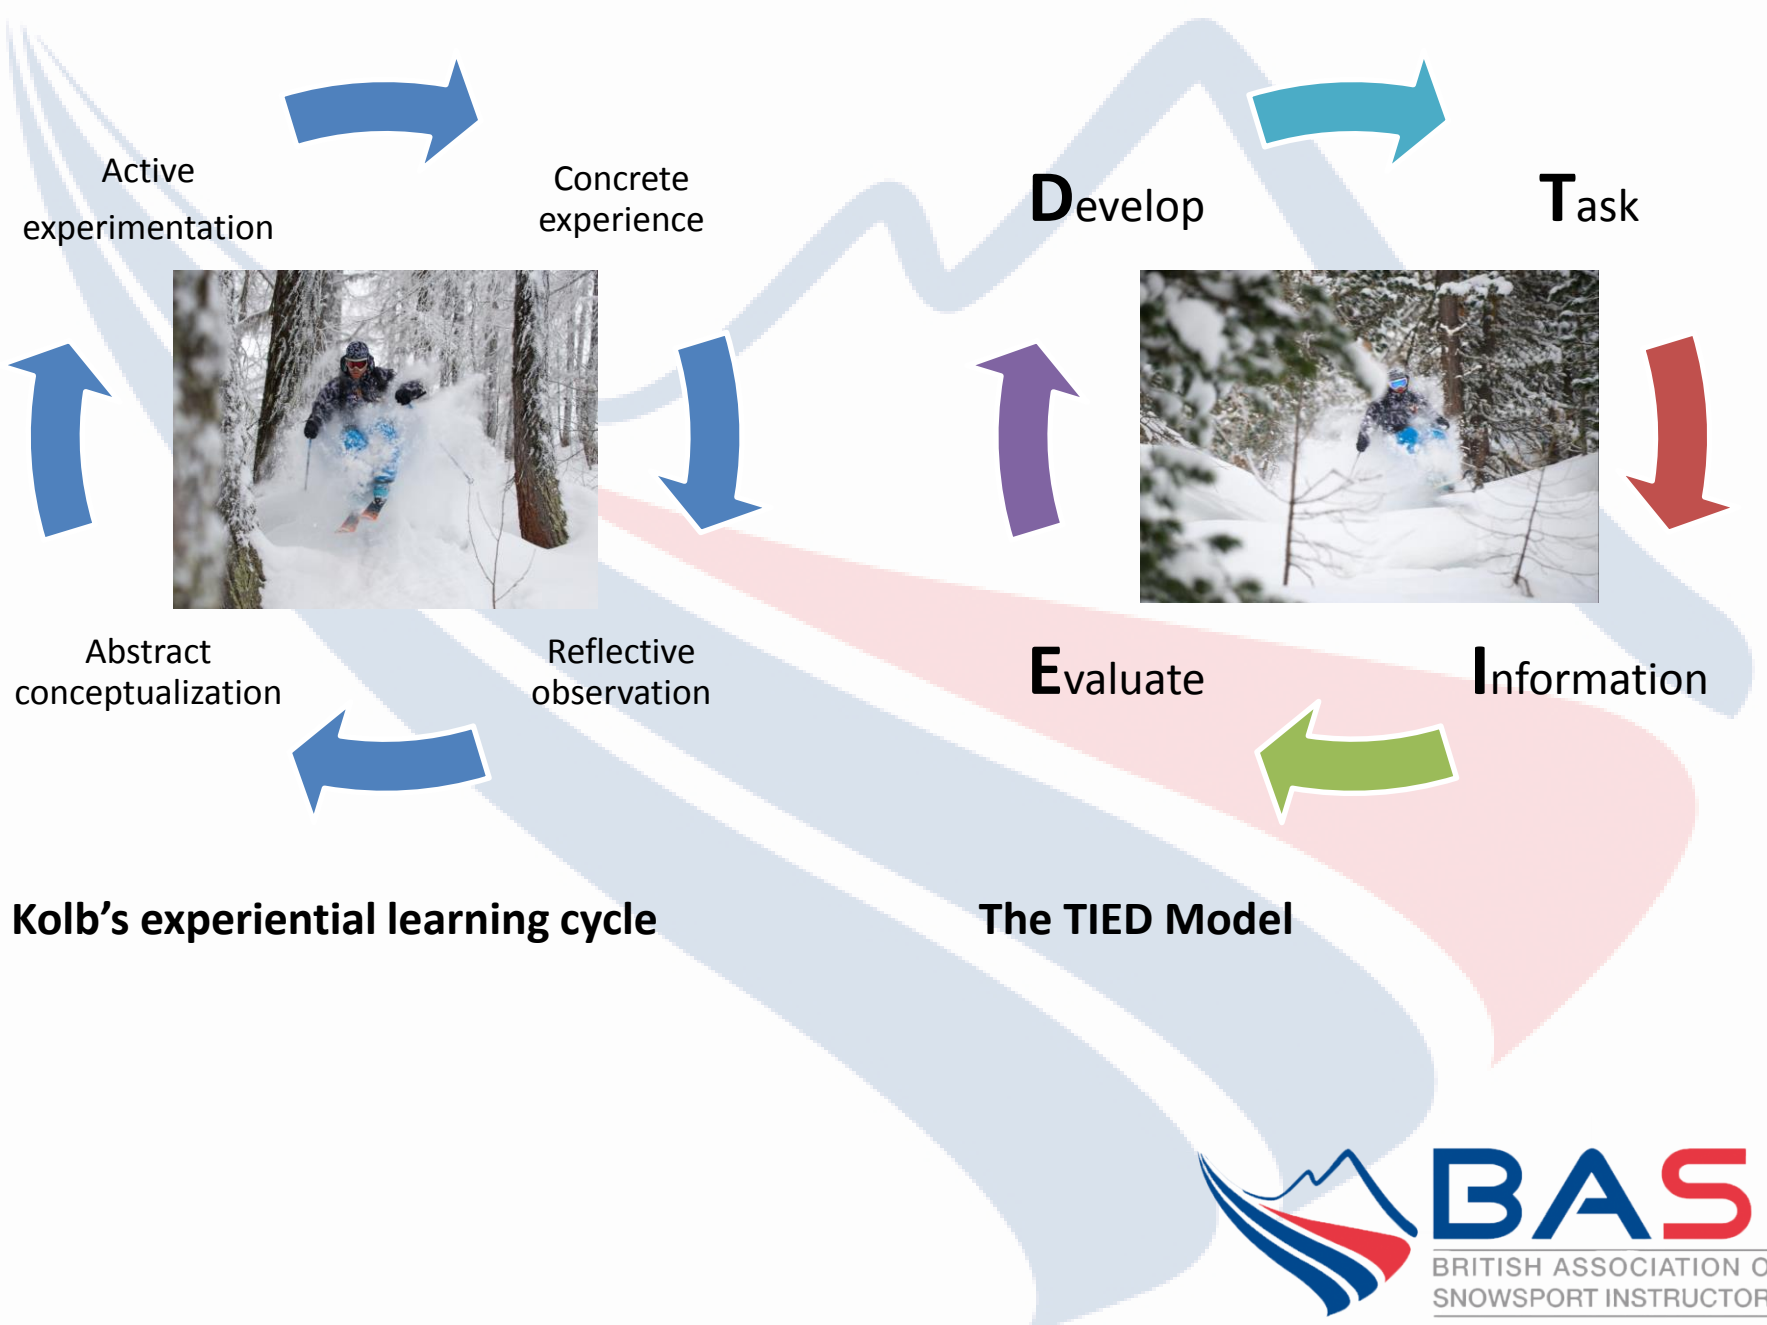

BASI
BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF
SNOWSPORT INSTRUCTORS

KOLB (1984)

Experiential learning theory

BASI
BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF
SNOWSPORT INSTRUCTORS

Develop

How can you approach the next step – same task or a change?

Task

Evaluate

Why?

Information

What happened?

Performance Threads

- Environment
- Equipment
- Psychological
- Physical
- Tactical
- Technical

Develop

How can you approach the next step – same task or a change?

Task

Evaluate

Why?

Information

What happened?

TIED as a framework to integrate our teaching tools

Develop

Goal setting
Skill acquisition
Learner preferences

Task

Teaching styles
Structure of practice
Goal setting

Communication skills
Responsibility spectrum

Information

Feedback
Learner preferences (VAK)
Reflection

Evaluate

Performance analysis
Performance threads

Versatile timescale

30 second
task

Week long objective

Season long goal

Summary

TIED was introduced in 2011 and is being fully integrated into our system

It is simple and effective

We use it for:

- Performance analysis
- Teaching structure
- Assessment
- Reflection

The more we use it the more we love it

Develop

Task

Evaluate

Information

